RECREATION & PARKS NEWS

At the June 21st Westminster Council meeting, Mayor Utz proclaimed July as Recreation and Parks Month in the City of Westminster. He urged all citizens to take some time and explore the many parks and activities provided by the Recreation and Parks Department.

Also in Monday's meeting, the Westminster Stingrays Swim Team presented a check to Recreation and Parks Department for $4,800 to assist with pool improvements. Ginna Walsh, parent coordinator, complimented the City's Recreation and Parks Department for their continued support of their programs.

She said that because of the creative partnership, they are able to provide swim lessons and competitive swimming for the residents of Westminster. Ron Schroers, Director of Recreation said that because of this partnership it is much easier to recruit life guards and managers using swimmers who have previously participated in their swim program.

Also during the Council meeting, the United States Tennis Association presented a check to the City of Westminster for $2,300 through a Fix A Court Grant to replace lights at all of the seven of the City's tennis courts.
